RETIREMENT PLAN OPTIONS

Defined Benefit Plan 401(a), Retirement Systems of Alabama (Teachers Retirement System -TRS)

- Participation in the TRS is mandatory if a person is employed in a position eligible for coverage in a non-temporary capacity on at least a one-half time basis and is earning at least the federal minimum wage.
- The plan provides the employee with a specific benefit at retirement by calculating the retirement benefit based on a formula determined by TRS.
- Benefits are payable monthly for the lifetime of the member, possibly continuing for the lifetime of their beneficiary.
- Members have a vested status in the TRS after accumulating 10 years of creditable service.
- Tier 1 members joining before Jan. 1, 2013, will have a contribution rate of 7.5% of qualified compensation.
- Tier 2 members joining on or after Jan. 1, 2013, will have a contribution rate of 6.2% of qualified compensation.

Tax Deferred Plan 403(b)/Roth option, Fidelity Investments, Lincoln Financial Group, TIAA, and Corebridge Financial

- Employees who are continuously employed and designated as full-time can make deferral contributions to the plan and receive an employer match.
- Employees who are part-time or temporary can make deferral contributions to the plan but will not receive an employer match. Independent contractors and student employees are not eligible for the plan.
- The plans offer fixed annuities, mutual funds, and variable annuities.
- Auburn will match up to $1,650 each plan year for full-time, benefit-eligible employees. Auburn's matching portion will be vested upon completion of five years of full-time continuous service.
- An employee may elect to defer, in whole percentages, up to 100% of their compensation on a pre-tax basis or they can contribute on a post-tax basis to a Roth account. Federal law, however, limits the amount they may elect to defer under this plan and the amount may change from year to year. As an example, in 2024 the maximum an employee is allowed to defer is $23,000 with an additional $7,500 if they are age 50 or older during the plan year.

Deferred Compensation Plan 457(b)/Roth option, Fidelity Investments, TIAA, and Corebridge Financial

- Employees who are full-time, part-time, or temporary can make deferral contributions to the plan. Independent contractors and student-employees are not eligible for the plan.
- The plans offer fixed annuities, mutual funds, and variable annuities.
- Auburn does not offer a match to this plan. There is an additional opportunity to contribute to a 457(b) through the RSA-1 Deferred Compensation Plan which is administered by the Retirement Systems of Alabama.
- An employee may elect to defer, in whole percentages, up to 100% of their compensation on a pre-tax basis or they can contribute on a post-tax basis to a Roth account. Federal law, however, limits the amount they may elect to defer under this plan and may change from year to year. As an example, in 2024 the maximum an employee is allowed to defer is $23,000 with an additional $7,500 if they are age 50 or older during the plan year.

ROTH OPTIONS AVAILABLE

Roth options are available for the 403(b), 457(b), and RSA-1 plans. This is an additional way to save in the plan where an employee contributes after-tax dollars from their paycheck. Unlike a traditional pre-tax 403(b) or 457(b), when an employee contributes to a Roth, at retirement they can then withdraw tax-free dollars from their account.
